Casual Residential Support Workers

To work between both Residential services – Massey and Kingsland

The successful applicants will provide a specialist service supporting client's recovery, with a view to achieving independent living and promoting quality of life. You will improve wellness and recovery through an individualized pathway built on assessments, goals and personal development.

You will assist clients in improving knowledge of their own mental health and taking responsibility in managing their symptoms.

Identifying early warning signs and medication issues is a vital part of this role.

Our services are located in Kingsland and Massey.

Essential Criteria:

- Experience in mental health support work or related health field
- Certificate in Mental health or an appropriate qualification
- Knowledge and experience of needs assessment/goal setting or equivalent
- Knowledge of community resources and ability to network
- A commitment to the Treaty of Waitangi and culturally safe practice
- Proficient computer skills in Word, Excel and Microsoft Outlook
- Excellent communication skills both written and verbal
- Meets Framework Competencies Level 1
- Exceptional people skills
- A current full clean drivers licence

To apply now please contact Judy Miranda for an Application Form and send it together with your CV and covering letter to:
